RICH WOMAN STARVES. Having died of starvation, thou h sessing ample mesns, Mrs. Carolina Barry, eighty-six years old, reputed to b. a miser, was found yesterday on the floor of her home in Brooklya, where ane live like a hermit.

Not a scrap of food was found in the house. The cupboard was bare, not even s crust of bread being left, while the woman's body showed that she had not es en tor days. On a bare de-l table were a hundred more deeds, documents and popers, said to represent property of immense ad been sloating over her treasures when she fell unconscious, through lack of mourishment. The coroner declared eath due to starvation.

The condition of the house astonished those who entered. Scores of coarly oil paintiegs, part of the valuable collection left by her nusband, who made a great fortune before his death, a score of years ago, sood in rows on the floor. The bin was bare. The women even slept on
